

Chief Community Impact Officer

King County Regional Homelessness Authority

Role Title: Chief Community Impact Officer

Salary Range: $120,000 - $200,000

Organizational Overview

The King County Regional Homelessness Authority (RHA) oversees all homelessness related programming and prevention initiatives in the Seattle/King County region. Created via an interlocal agreement between the City of Seattle and King County in 2019, the Authority is charged with building and implementing a regional approach to ending homelessness in King County.

To accomplish this, the Authority is specifically tasked with:

1. Engaging and centering people with lived experience;
2. Focusing on justice-based approaches to actively address disproportionalities in the population experiencing homelessness; and
3. Integrating the perspectives of a wide range of stakeholders across King County through a sub-regional planning process that recognizes the unique attributes of communities within the county.

The Authority is currently in its founding era and seeks dynamic and skilled leaders at all levels.

Team Overview

The leadership team within the Authority is responsible for oversight of critical agency activities including program development and oversight, procurement, fiscal management, ombudsperson functions, etc. Members of this team report directly to the CEO and have broad mandates to execute on large scale tasks in service of the Authority's mission and principles.

Role Description

The Chief Community Impact Officer (CCIO) works closely with the CEO, staff, and Board to help shape and implement the strategic vision the Authority has for responding to and ending homelessness in the region. The CCIO is responsible for the development and implementation of the Authority's community organizing, data management and reporting (including HMIS and other data collection as deemed necessary by Authority leadership), and sub regional planning initiatives. This role is responsible for using data in ways that are innovative and strategic and aligned to the Authority's core belief that those who have directly experienced homelessness are best suited to develop the solutions that will ultimately end homelessness.

The CCIO will be responsible for building a department that can provide robust near real time data to agency decision makers, providers, people experiencing homelessness, and other community members as needed. Additionally, this role will be responsible for spearheading initiatives that will enable the Authority to routinely share what progress has been made towards ending homelessness in the region. This role will also oversee the Authority's sub-regional planning process, a critically important process that will allow the Authority to deploy its resources efficiently across the County and with granular understanding of the challenges and opportunities that exist within the 39 cities (and additional unincorporated areas) within King County. Additionally, the CCIO will be responsible for ensuring departmental protocols and standards that support the departments of the Ombudsperson as well as the Chief Program Officer.

This role supervises a department of 10+ staff with the potential to grow substantially in response to funding availability in subsequent budget allocations or through other revenue generating partnerships.

The CCIO is a member of the Leadership Team and assists in providing oversight for the Authority's strategic direction, teambuilding, implementation of policies and practices, budgeting, and planning processes. The CCIO is closely involved in designing and managing a healthy organizational culture centered on the Authority's values of community, justice, well-being, learning, collaboration, trust, flexibility, intersectionality and transformation.
