

Ombuds Quarterly Report: Q3 2024

Services Offered

The Ombuds Office offers five services: assistance and facilitation, external review, information and referral, investigation, and program review. Most responses to inquiries involve offering information and referrals related to homeless services or helping individuals understand and address gaps in service delivery.

Submissions & Inquiries

During the third quarter of 2024, the Ombuds Office received 158 submissions and inquiries from 158 constituents. Most of these were requests for support and system facilitation regarding homeless services or other resources, accounting for 76.58% of the submissions. The second most common type of submission was complaints, where 15.82% of constituents expressed dissatisfaction with the actions or inaction of service providers. Finally, 7.59% of the submissions and inquiries involved concerns or comments where constituents contacted the Ombuds Office to share feedback, observations, or express discomfort about services.
