

Dear Continuum of Care (CoC) Members,

The King County Regional Homelessness Authority is delighted to extend a special invitation to you for the upcoming CoC Convening. This significant gathering is an opportunity for the Seattle/King County CoC to come together, reflect on our progress in reducing and ending homelessness, strategize for the future, and strengthen our commitment to addressing homelessness in our community.

Event Details

Date: Tuesday, June 17th, 2025

Time: 10:00AM – 3:00 PM

Location: North Seattle College – 9600 College Way N., Seattle WA 98103 –
World Events Center - Room CC1456

Agenda Highlights:

- Welcome from KCRHA and CoC Board Co-Chairs
- Join us for an interactive workshop led by Bridget B. Kelly, Consultant with the William D. Ruckelshaus Center, and Jed Chalupa, Ph.D., Senior Facilitator with the Center. Together, we'll reflect on current challenges, assess alignment with key principles from the Pathways to Housing report, and collaborate to identify actionable next steps for addressing homelessness and housing instability across the region. This session is designed for rich dialogue and collaborative thinking—please come ready to participate!

- Networking lunch and breaks to foster connections

This convening is a cornerstone event for our CoC board and CoC members, offering a platform to align our efforts, share insights, and deepen our impact. Your participation as CoC members is invaluable, as your expertise and dedication are integral to our collective success.

RSVP:

Please confirm your attendance by June 9, 2025, to ensure we have adequate arrangements for all participants.

Please RSVP here

We are looking forward to a productive and inspiring day at North Seattle College, surrounded by dedicated individuals like yourself, all committed to making a significant difference in our community.
