

Dear Continuum of Care (CoC) Members,

The King County Regional Homelessness Authority invites you to the upcoming CoC Convening focused on “From Stability to Opportunity: Building Inclusive Systems for Housing, Employment and Community Well-Being.” A gathering to connect, learn, and collaborate on advancing housing stability, economic opportunity, and inclusive community solutions while strengthening our collective commitment to preventing and ending homelessness in King County.

The CoC Membership Convening brings together partners from across the homelessness response system to explore solutions that strengthen housing stability, expand economic opportunity, and build more inclusive, equitable communities through collaboration, innovation, and shared learning.
